Application to amend the List of Specimens taken to be Suitable for Live Import (Live Import List)

A person may apply to amend the List of Specimens taken to be Suitable for Live Import (Live Import List) to include an item under section 303EE of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (EPBC Act) and Regulation 9A.07 of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Regulations 2025.

The Live Import List is comprised of two parts:

Part 1 – specimens not requiring an import permit

Part 2 – specimens requiring an import permit

Any specimens not on the Live Import List cannot be imported into Australia.

The Live Import List may be downloaded from the Federal Register of Legislation website at Live Import List.

Who should fill out this form

Any person wishing to apply to amend the Live Import List under the EPBC Act needs to complete this form.

Important notes

- Applications will not be accepted without
    I. completion of the applicant details and a signed declaration
    II. a draft risk assessment report addressing the Terms of Reference
- There are severe penalties for knowingly making false or misleading statements in this application.
- Most imports of live animals also require clearance or a permit under the Biosecurity Act 2015. Please contact the Department of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry on 1800 900 090 or +61 3 8318 6700 for information on quarantine and health control.
- Each state and territory of Australia has different legislation regarding legally keeping different species so it is advisable to check what restrictions may be imposed where you live.
